MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Indiana State Fair Exhibitor,

Welcome to the 2003 Indiana State Fair! Steeped in tradition dating back to 1852, the Indiana State Fair is the sixth oldest state fair in the country and enjoys a reputation of being one of the premiere displays of youth and agriculture anywhere. You are now part of that great tradition.

As a past exhibitor myself, I'm quite sure you will enjoy your experience displaying your exhibit and sharing your knowledge with others. Over the years, the Indiana State Fair has provided many wonderful memories for the thousands of exhibitors and visitors to this wonderful event. I hope it will for you as well.

On behalf of the Indiana State Board, I wish you the best of luck with your competition. Thanks for being part of the Indiana State Fair.

Sincerely,

Terry Hoffman, President

GENERAL TERMS, CONDITIONS, PENALTIES AND DUE PROCESS

In the interest of all breeders of livestock, all exhibitors, the Indiana State Fair Board and the agriculture industry, the following general terms, conditions and listing of prohibited activities are presented to maintain, insure and present a wholesome, high quality educational program. As the showcase of Indiana, it is imperative to promote and allow only ethical behavior by exhibitors at the Indiana State Fair.

The Indiana State Fair Board reserves the final and absolute right to interpret any and all terms and conditions, contained in any and all parts of the Handbook/Premium List and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions or differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with, or incidental to the Indiana State Fair. They further reserve the right to determine unforeseen matters not covered by general or department terms and conditions published in the Handbook/Premium List, to amend or add to these terms and conditions as in its judgement it may determine, and to withdraw all premium offerings in all departments should any emergency exist and circumstances demand.

Fraud, deception, any prohibited activities, or violations of general or departmental terms and conditions, or any activity determined to be improper or unethical by the Board or Fair department director shall not be allowed. Any exhibitor found in violation is subject to sanction and/or disqualification.

1. TAMPERING, ALTERING, AND/OR MISREPRESENTATION relative to any exhibit is prohibited. This prohibited activity includes but is not limited to breeding, age, ownership, and/or method of preparation or completion.
(For example, with animal exhibits this includes, but is not limited to, coloring that alters or misrepresents breed characteristics, pumping, drenching and filling).
2. UNETHICAL FITTING OF ANIMAL EXHIBITS is defined as the administration of any substance (to include, but not limited to drugs covered in #3 below, blood, oils, steroids, air, chemical substances) or performance of any surgical or nonsurgical procedure altering the animal's configuration or natural conformation of any part of the animal's body, or rendering its tissues unfit for human consumption and is prohibited. Exceptions that are allowed to 1 and 2 above include hoof trimming, dehorning, removal of hair, castration, branding, tattooing, ear notching, docking of tails on sheep and swine and coloring or manipulation of normally attached hair that does not alter or misrepresent breed characteristics or the animals configuration or natural conformation.

3. No Exhibitor may take exception to the decisions of an official and/or judge in an unprofessional and/or public manner nor shall any exhibitor or person representing the exhibitor interfere with or show disrespect to any judge or show official.

PROHIBITED DURING THE ANNUAL STATE FAIR:

No alcoholic beverage shall be consumed on the Fairgrounds. No alcoholic beverage shall be permitted onto or be permitted to remain on the Fairgrounds (See Rule 80 IAC 4-4-3).

No person in possession of a deadly weapon shall be permitted onto or be permitted to remain on the Fairgrounds; any person properly licensed to carry a firearm must secure the firearm in a locked compartment of his/her vehicle and it shall not be visible to passersby (See Rule 80 IAC 4-4-4).

The ONLY animals permitted on the Fairgrounds are: animals registered, boarded, entered for, or that will be registered, boarded or entered for exhibition, show or other competition at the State Fair; animals that will be used in a scheduled performance or to perform work at the State Fair; law enforcement animals and service animals. No person in possession of or having control over an unauthorized animal shall be permitted onto or be permitted to remain on the Fairgrounds (See Rule 80 IAC 4-4-5).

DETERMINATION OF VIOLATIONS OF TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The department director assigned by the Indiana State Fair Board to the department where a violation of any term or condition established for the Indiana State Fair is reported to have occurred prior to, during or after judging shall make an initial determination as to whether a violation has occurred.

The department director shall upon determining a violation has occurred make a determination as to the appropriate penalty to impose upon the violating person(s). The department director may choose to impose one, all or a combination of the following penalties.

PENALTIES

1. The exhibitor in question is disqualified and forfeits all entry and other fees and all premiums, trophies, and awards from the department.
2. Any or all State Fair premiums, trophies and awards won by an exhibitor in any and all State Fair departments shall be withdrawn and required to be returned to the State Fair. All entry and other fees are forfeited.
3. The exhibitor and/or his/her immediate family may be barred from State Fair competition for a period determined by the department director that may include up to a lifetime.
4. The department director may impose any other penalty deemed appropriate.

DUE PROCESS

The following due process and right of appeal shall be followed.

1. The department director shall notify the exhibitor in writing of the violation and penalty imposed within 15 days of the determination of a violation.
2. Within 15 days of receipt of written notification, the exhibitor may appeal the decision in writing to the Indiana State Fair Board. The written appeal must be delivered to the office of the State Fair Board within the 15 days.
3. Within 15 days of receipt of the written appeal, the department director may rescind his/her initial determination. No further determination as to the reported violation may be subsequently made by the director. The exhibitor shall have no further remedy available upon the decision of the initial determination.
4. Should the department director take no action on the appeal within 15 days from the date of receipt in the office of the Fair Board, a date will be set by the Indiana State Fair Board for a hearing on the appeal and the exhibitor will be notified in writing.
5. The State Fair Board shall appoint a hearing officer from its membership to conduct a hearing of the appeal as the sole hearing officer or the Board may sit as a whole, excluding the affected department director, with the hearing officer presiding.
6. Within 15 days of the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer shall submit to the Board his/her findings and a recommended final determination as to the reported violation(s), penalties and the exhibitor's appeal.
7. Upon receiving the recommendations of the hearing officer, the Board shall take action upon the recommendation and adopt a final determination at its' next regularly scheduled meeting. The exhibitor will be given a written copy of the Board's adopted findings and final determination.

GRIEVANCE

1. In all cases of grievance affecting an exhibitor, the statement must be verified.
2. A grievance must be personally presented to the department director in the department where the exhibit is being judged within 24 hours of the occurrence of the infraction for all livestock activities and prior to the official closing of the State Fair (5 pm the last Sunday of the Fair) for all other activities. In the event a grievance is presented after judging has begun on the item or activity in question, the judging will proceed and the grievance will be handled as if the grievance were presented following the judging.
3. A grievance must be presented in writing, notarized and accompanied by a $500 cash or money order made out to the Indiana State Fair. The grievance must state the name of the exhibitor, the exhibit and class in question, the specific reason for ineligibility and the terms and conditions that govern the case.
4. The $500 will be returned if the grievance is upheld. The $500 will be forfeited to the State Fair if the grievance is not sustained.
5. The department director shall notify in writing, within 15 days of receiving the grievance, the person(s) submitting the grievance as to his/her determination of the validity of the grievance and the actions taken as a result of upholding the grievance. If the grievance is denied, the notifications shall state the reasons for denial.
6. The person(s) submitting the grievance shall have the due process right consistent with the due process stated in the due process section of this Handbook/Premium List.

JUDGES AND JUDGING

1. The awards will be made by judges who are to be selected by the department director.
2. The time at which the judges will pass upon the different classes is determined by the department director. All exhibition programs are subject to change without announcement.
3. Any exhibit not presented promptly when called will be ruled out.
4. The judge, must, if any attempt be made by an exhibitor or his agent to interfere with or influence his decision, report the fact at once to the department director.
5. An exhibitor who removes a placing ribbon, or authorizes another person to do so, in the presence of the judge, or in any manner insults the judge, shall forfeit all premiums, and be excluded from exhibiting, and the Fair Board may impose any additional penalty it so desires.

6. REGARDLESS OF THE NUMBER OF ENTRIES IN EACH CLASS BY ONE EXHIBITOR, ONLY TWO PREMIUMS WILL BE PAID IN ANY OF THE SINGLE CLASSES AND ONLY ONE PREMIUM IN ANY OF THE GROUP CLASSES.
7. Judges shall not award prizes to unworthy exhibits, whether there is competition or not, nor shall they award premiums on articles incorrectly entered or incorrectly named.

APPEALS FROM DECISIONS OF JUDGES

1. The right of an exhibitor to appeal the decision of a judge will exist only when it is charged that the award has been made in violation of the term and condition governing the exhibit, or when it is charged that the decision of the judges has been influenced or interfered with by another.
2. The appellant must give verbal notice to the department director in which the judging occurred within 2 hours of the judging. The written appeal as described below must be received within 24 hours of the judging being appealed. The written appeal must be given to the Department Director.
3. Appeals from the decision of a judge must be made in writing and must contain at least one specific charge, stating at length the facts relied upon and the term and condition violated, and naming witnesses and their addresses by whom proof is to be made.
4. The department director shall notify the exhibitor in writing within 15 days of receipt of the appeal as to their findings and actions resulting therein.
5. The exhibitor shall have the due process rights consistent with the due process stated in the due process section of the Handbook/Premium List.

SUBMISSION OF AN ENTRY TO THE INDIANA STATE FAIR EXPRESSLY BINDS THE EXHIBITOR AND ALL PARTIES INVOLVED WITH THE EXHIBITION OF EXHIBIT, TO ALL TERMS AND CONDITIONS CONTAINED IN ANY AND ALL PARTS OF THE HANDBOOK/PREMIUM LIST.

STATE FAIR INFORMATION

Loss or Damage

It is mutually agreed that the Indiana State Fair assumes no liability for loss to property or by reason of any claim for personal injury, including death. The exhibitor herein agrees to release, discharge and indemnify the Indiana State Fair, its component members, and their successors from liability by reason of injury to property and/or persons, including death, which may occur within or upon the premises herein described in any manner connected with use thereof by exhibitor.

In the event of an animal dying while at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, the animal's owner(s) is/are responsible to remove its carcass from the grounds. The timetable is as follows, remove from the building or display area within 30 minutes to either their vehicle or a designated location. The owner then has up to four (4) hours to remove the carcass from the grounds to a proper disposal site at the owners expense. If necessary fairgrounds staff will assist in loading the carcass into the owners vehicle.

Admission to Grounds -

General Admission, Adults - $6.00

Children, 5 years old and under, admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

Free parking on Fairgrounds during the 2003 Fair (August 6- 17)

Exhibitor's ticket (6-single day tickets) - $24.00 May be purchased with original Open Entry Form or in person at Entry Department Office.

Exhibitors bringing entries into the Fairgrounds on or after Wednesday, August 6, must pay admission or an exhibitor ticket is required. Any exhibitor leaving the Fairgrounds, wishing to return the same day must obtain a wristband from the gate attendant or pay admission to re-enter.
This policy will be strictly enforced.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR INDIANA STATE FAIR CAMPGROUNDS

Spaces in the Indiana State Fair Campgrounds (fairgrounds campground and 46th Street campgrounds) will be reserved on a first come-first serve basis. The charge for a camping spot will be $19.00 per day. This price includes 6% sales tax. In order to reserve a spot, a three day, nonrefundable deposit is required.

These terms and conditions apply to both the fairgrounds campground (located on the west end of the grounds) and the 46th Street campground (located across from 46th Street). Spaces will be assigned according to the earliest postmark. Specify which campground is your first choice. The request to reserve camping spots and the three day, nonrefundable deposit must be submitted to the Concessions Office, Indiana State Fair Commission, 1202 E. 38th Street, Indianapolis, IN 46205. Questions concerning camping should be directed to the Concessions Office at (317)927-7510. Only one vehicle will be permitted to park in the assigned camping space. The vehicle will be issued a special sticker for authorized entrance to the campgrounds area. All other vehicles must park in designated areas on or off the Fairgrounds. Any vehicles in violation will be towed at owner's expense. If any of these stipulations are violated, the campsite rental agreement will be immediately terminated, and the camper will be required to leave the Fairgrounds without refund.

PARKING

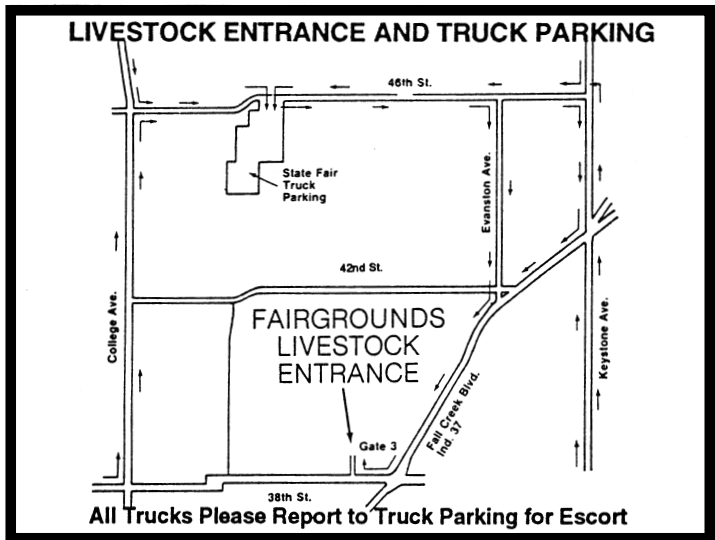

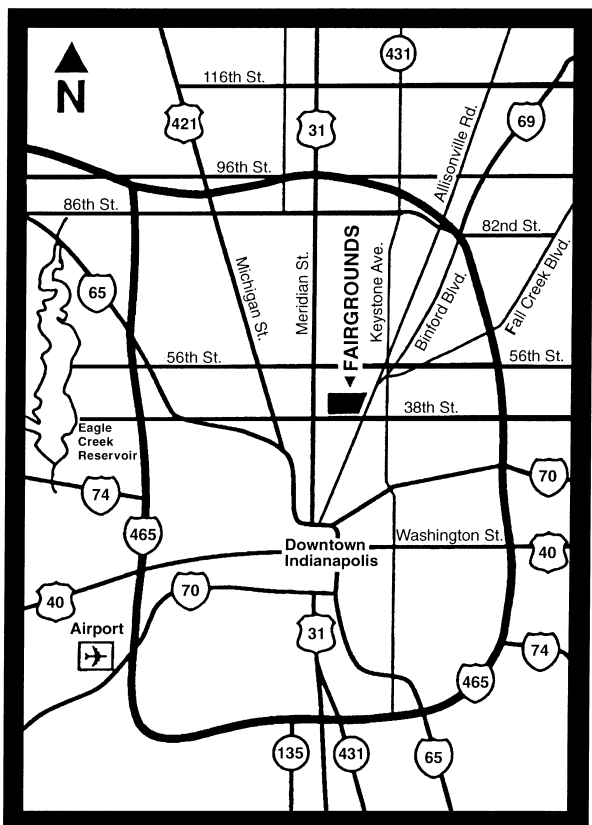

1. All beef, dairy, dairy goat, horse, llama/alpaca, sheep, and swine exhibits must enter the Fairgrounds through Gate 3, located on 38th Street.
2. Poultry, rabbit, and dog exhibitors must enter Gate 1A on 38th Street.
3. 4-H Cat exhibitors will enter through Gate 16 behind 4-H Exhibit Hall.
4. All other livestock exhibitors will enter the Indiana State Fairgrounds by right turn only through Gate 3.
5. If space is not available for unloading at the Indiana State Fairgrounds' proper, you will be directed to the State Fair 46th Street Lot just north of the Fairgrounds. As space becomes available for unloading, you will be released from the 46th Street Lot back to the Fairgrounds.
6. After unloading, all trucks and trailers must seek parking outside the Fairgrounds' proper. This year you will have two options:
 - a. Parking will be available for trucks and trailers at the 46th Street Lot as in the past at no charge.
 - b. Reserved lot guaranteed parking spaces will be available to purchase at the South 38th Street Lot just south of the Indiana State Fairgrounds property across 38th Street. Reserved lots cost $5.00 per day, per vehicle. (Trucks & trailers combination $10.00 per day). Reserved lot will not be oversold. Reserved parking can be purchased at the South 38th Street Lot when exhibitors arrive for the Fair.
7. Transportation will be provided by the State Fair for exhibitors between 46th Street and Gate 3.
8. Unloading is prohibited at the Fairgrounds "tie-out" area.

9. Lot 5 overflow will again be located in the infield.
10. Loading-out of livestock will only be permitted when proper load-out pass is obtained by the exhibitor. Load-out passes must be presented to Gate 3 personnel for load-out. Passes are obtained from the office at each livestock barn.
11. The Indiana State Fair Board is not responsible for trucks, trailers, cars or their contents.

NO VEHICLES ARE ALLOWED ON FAIRGROUNDS
STREETS AFTER 10 AM.
ALL VIOLATORS WILL BE TOWED.

NO DOGS OR PETS ARE ALLOWED ON THE FAIRGROUNDS.

GENERAL ENTRY

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Entry Department is located on the second floor of the Communications Building, State Fairgrounds. Address: Entry Department, Indiana State Fairgrounds, 1202 E. 38th St., Indianapolis, IN 46205-2869.

Phone: 317-927-7515.

HANDBOOK/PREMIUM LISTS AND ENTRY FORMS ARE AVAILABLE ON OUR WEBSITE - www.indianastatefair.com

1. Each exhibitor must pay one entry fee per department at the time of making entry into the Indiana State Fair. Each exhibitor will receive 6 - one day passes to the Fair. Additional exhibitor tickets may be purchased with original entry only, or in person at the Entry Department in the Communications Building.
2. 4-H members who make entries in open classes are required to pay all open entry fees.
3. All entries must be made in the name of the bona fide owner(s).
4. Separate entry forms must be used for each exhibitor and each department (i.e. Home and Family Arts, Poultry/Rabbits, Livestock, Agriculture/Horticulture). Do not crowd entries on one entry form. Entrants may photocopy blank forms or request additional forms.
All entries must be written on Official 2003 Department specific entry form. It is suggested that exhibitors obtain a certificate of mailing from the Post Office when mailing their entry. This certificate would be considered proof of mailing if entry isn't received by the Indiana State Fair.
5. REGULAR OPEN CLASS ENTRIES MUST BE POSTMARKED (NO METERED MAIL) BY JULY 1. Late entries are accepted in various departments, with late fees being specific to dates and terms and conditions of that department. See Livestock Departmental Terms and Conditions and department terms and conditions for further information on dates and fees. A late entry is any entry that is postmarked (no metered mail accepted) or hand delivered to the Entry Department after the stated deadlines, with the exception of group classes and substitutions. Substitutions may be made within sections, provided the same number of entries is maintained as was entered on the original entry form, (i.e., if 8 exhibits are on the original entry form, you are limited to 8 entries, without paying a late fee). At check-in, any exhibit entered on an original entry form may be added to any class for which it is eligible. Those classes designated as group classes (containing more than one animal) can be entered at check-in, without additional fees, provided the animals in the group are entered in individual classes.

Brewers' Competition - deadline is June 28, NO LATE ENTRIES ACCEPTED.

Wine Competition - deadline is July 15, NO LATE ENTRIES ACCEPTED.

Market Type Stud Ram & Ewe Show & Sale - deadline is July 15

6. Make check or money order payable to Indiana State Fair and mail with entry form(s) to Entry Department, Indiana State Fairgrounds, 1202 E. 38th Street, Indianapolis, Indiana 46205-2869. (Currency sent at your own risk). If one check is used to pay for more than one entry form and one entry form is in error, NONE of the entries will be processed until the problem is corrected.
7. WARNING! If all of the information is not completed on the 2003 Official Department Specific Entry Form and payment enclosed, the entry form will be returned to the exhibitor and will be subject to all applicable late fees.
8. For exhibits which are entered but not brought to the Fair, all fees are forfeited.
9. Entry tickets, receipts and parking stickers will be mailed. No parking stickers are mailed to Home and Family Arts exhibitors.
10. DO NOT MAKE ENTRIES IN CHAMPIONSHIP/SWEEPSTAKES CLASSES.
11. Exhibit tags are used for the identification of exhibits in the Home and Family Arts department, the Agriculture/Horticulture department, wool in the Sheep department and in the Poultry/Rabbit department. Exhibit tags are mailed only to exhibitors in the Agriculture/Horticulture department and the Home and Family Arts department. All others are held until exhibits are brought to the Fair.
12. IN THE EVENT OF CONFLICT BETWEEN GENERAL AND DEPARTMENTAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS, THE LATTER WILL GOVERN.

NSF CHECKS

A $25 handling charge will be added to all checks returned as non-sufficient funds. Any exhibitor not redeeming a non-sufficient funds check will be ineligible to show or forfeit all premiums and awards won. An exhibitor with any NSF check not redeemed by the entry deadline(s) will be assessed all applicable late fees. Please note: NSF checks are not re-deposited.

PREMIUMS

1. PREMIUM CHECKS WILL BE MAILED IN EARLY OCTOBER FOR ALL DEPARTMENTS.
2. Premiums will be paid according to official judges result sheets and payable to exhibitor name as entered.
3. Any exhibitor receiving $600.00 or more in monetary awards will be required to provide the Indiana State Fair with a completed IRS Form W-9 (W-8BEN for foreign exhibitors) providing a taxpayer identification number. Failure to provide this information will result in the forfeiture of all premium monies. Forms may be picked up at the Barn Offices or on the IRS website.
4. Questions and/or discrepancies noted in issued premium checks must be addressed to the Indiana State Fair Entry Department prior to December 1, 2003 for resolution. Premium records will be considered closed on December 1, 2003 and any exhibitor right of protest or re-issue is thereafter relinquished. PREMIUM CHECKS MUST BE CASHED WITHIN 90 DAYS OF RECEIPT.

ALL STALL, TIE AND PEN FEES MUST BE PAID AT TIME OF MAKING ENTRY. Any adjustments on pen or stall rentals will be made at the discretion of the department director.

1. Pens or stalls are assigned only to animals shown in competition.
2. Stalls will be assigned only to bona fide exhibitors and animals actually entered for exhibition and show at the Fair. Failure to exhibit an animal will result in forfeiture of the stall.
NOTE: No stock will be released, nor premiums paid until all bills are paid. Further, no refunds will be made in the livestock department after closing date of entries.
3. Exhibits will be assigned stalls or space by department director or assistant.
4. Whenever possible when assigning stalls, animals of the same breed or class will be placed in the same building or section of building.
5. All livestock exhibits, when assigned stalls or space, are subject to the control and discretion of the department director, except that they must be fed and cared for by the exhibitor or his agent.
6. Parties reserving stalls and not occupying the same shall be subject to reassignment. In case of unavoidable detention and failure to attend the Fair, notice of such inability should be given to the department director.
7. All stalls and pens shall be kept clean and well bedded. Failure by the exhibitor to carry out this rule permits the director in charge to have this done and charged to the exhibitor.
8. All livestock must be under charge of competent and courteous attendants, who must be neatly dressed; and during the time that such animals are not being inspected by the judge, they shall be prepared for inspection by visitors from 9 am until 7:30 pm, and the attendants should be available to impart information to visitors.

FEEDING AND BEDDING

1. Feed and bedding of good quality will be available to exhibitors and will be sold for cash on delivery ONLY, unless otherwise arranged for by the feed concessionaire. Owners should provide their help with the necessary funds with which to purchase feed. Exhibitors must have receipt for feed and bedding before livestock is released or premium money paid.
2. Feed and bedding must be ordered from the FEED CONCESSION-AIRE by 9 am to be delivered on the same day. Selling of feed, grain, hay and bedding by anyone other than the Feed Concessionaire is strictly prohibited.
3. Exhibitors will be permitted to bring feed, grain and a limited amount of hay and bedding for their own use and only at time of livestock's arrival.
4. THE INDIANA STATE FAIR WILL NOT FURNISH ANY BEDDING IN THE LIVESTOCK BARN.
5. DUMPING OF BEET PULP, BEDDING, FEED, RAW MILK OR ANY SIMILAR MATERIAL INTO DRAINS IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED.
6. Care should be taken to prevent trash from being put into manure waste piles.

REMOVAL OF LITTER

1. No litter is to be placed in aisle at any time. Wheelbarrows will be available and all litter is to be placed at a designated point for removal.
2. Exhibitors will be required to keep the space near their stalls clear of waste and rubbish of any kind.

STATE FAIR VETERINARY SERVICE

1. An approved practicing veterinarian will be located in the northwest corner of the Marsh South Pavilion, and will be subject to call at the exhibitor's expense.
2. A regular fee will be charged by the veterinarian on duty.
3. The State Veterinarian or his deputy, when requested to do so, will attend all livestock shows and will act in conjunction with the judge.
4. An authorized representative of the State Veterinarian's office will be on duty to check health certificates at all times, in so far as is practicable and necessary to do so.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS FOR THE EXHIBITION OF DOMESTIC ANIMALS AT THE 2003 INDIANA STATE FAIR

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL SPECIES

All exhibitors must remove from the premises any livestock or poultry that exhibit symptoms of disease that may be infectious or contagious when requested by the Indiana State Veterinarian or his agents. Failure to meet all health requirements will result in removal of animals presented by an exhibitor.

Please call the Indiana State Board of Animal Health at 1-877-747-3038 with questions concerning health requirements and recommendations.

A. Health Certificates

1. Exhibitors presenting the following species must have a properly completed official health certificate but are not required to have the health certificate approved by the Board of Animal Health prior to the exhibition:
 - A. All animals of the family Bovidae, including cattle, sheep, goats, and buffalo.
 - B. All animals of the family Equidae (horses, donkeys, etc...) if the animal originates from outside the state.
 - C. All animals of the family Suidae, including domestic and feral swine.
 - D. All animals of the family Cervidae, including deer and elk.
 - E. All animals of the family Camelidae, including camels, llamas, and alpacas.
2. Health certificates accompanying animals for exhibition must be completed by a licensed and accredited veterinarian who has personally inspected the animals and must clearly include a description of each animal including the age, sex, and breed of the animal, and the official identification for each animal.
3. The official Indiana health certificate is valid for 90 days. An approved health certificate on any animal coming from outside Indiana for exhibition in Indiana is valid for 30 days.
4. A copy of the official health certificate for each animal exhibited must be on file at the state veterinarian's office prior to the opening day of the exhibition.

B. Animals from outside Indiana

In addition to the other health certificate requirements, health certificates for all out of state swine and cattle must have the import permit number for the 2003 Indiana State Fair, “INSF03”, written on the health certificate.

C. Limitations on Exhibition

This section describes limitations on exhibiting animals in Indiana. There may be other exhibition limitations that are described in the specific species requirements.

1. The following animals are not eligible for exhibition in Indiana:
 - (a) Animals that originate from a herd that is under quarantine.
 - (b) Any animal classified as a brucellosis “suspect” or a “stabilized suspect”.
 - (c) Animals showing symptoms of any infectious or communicable disease or that is otherwise a health hazard to persons or other animals.
2. Any animal that develops or shows signs of any infectious or communicable disease during exhibition, as determined by Board of Animal Health personnel, must be removed from the premises including the surrounding exhibition grounds. An owner that is disputing the exclusion of their animal from exhibition may not exhibit the animal in question pending any appeal.

D. Testing

All tests required for exhibition must be conducted at the Animal Disease Diagnostic Laboratory (ADDL) at Purdue University, a laboratory approved by the board, or a state-federal-approved laboratory.

E. Identification

All animals requiring a health certificate for exhibition must be permanently and individually identified by an acceptable method. Acceptable methods vary by species but may include an ear tag, tattoo, standard ear notch, and individual brand or breed registration number. Official identification acceptable for specific species of livestock exhibited in Indiana are as follows:

1. Swine: standard ear notch for breeding and exhibition swine.
2. Cattle: official ear tag, tattoo, or individual brand or registration number if accompanied by registration papers. Indiana steers that do not require testing may use any type of individual ear tag (e.g. plastic ear tag).
3. Sheep: tattoo or metal or plastic ear tag.
4. Goats: tattoo or metal or plastic ear tag.
5. Horses: lip tattoo, individual brand, description of markings with name, or a registration number if accompanied by the registration papers.
6. Cervidae: tattoo or ear tag.
7. If any additional identification other than the official identification is present, one of the additional identifications should also be listed on the certificate of veterinary inspection.

CATTLE

Before departing for exhibition, exhibitors should compare the identification listed on the health papers for each animal to the identification that is on the animals to be exhibited, and double check to be sure that all relevant blanks on the health certificate are filled in with the proper information. Corrections to the health certificate must be made by and initialed by a veterinarian.

1. SEE GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL SPECIES.
2. Cattle from Indiana do not need a brucellosis test or a tuberculosis test for exhibition in Indiana.

4. No sheep or goats may be exhibited that are showing signs of being infected with ringworm.
5. No sheep shall be exhibited from a flock infected with foot rot, sore mouth, or caseous lymphadenitis. A licensed, accredited veterinarian must indicate that each animal is free of these diseases by:
(A) Signing the following statement on the official health certificate: "This flock or herd does not show visible signs of foot rot, sore mouth, or caseous lymphadenitis."; or
(B) By certifying that he or she examined the entire flock by checking the "herd box" on the health certificate.
6. No goats shall be exhibited from a flock infected with foot rot, sore mouth, or caseous lymphadenitis. A licensed, accredited veterinarian must indicate that each animal is free of these diseases by:
(A) Signing the following statement on the official health certificate: "This flock or herd does not show visible signs of foot rot, sore mouth, or caseous lymphadenitis."; or
(B) By certifying he or she examined the entire flock by checking the "herd box" on the health certificate.
7. Sheep and goats that have been on premises infected with pseudorabies must be isolated from infected swine and any other species showing symptoms of pseudorabies not less than 14 days prior to the exhibition.

For more information on sheep and goat health requirements, call the Indiana Board of Animal Health (317)227-0315.

SWINE

Before departing for exhibition, exhibitors should compare the identification listed on the health papers for each animal to the identification that is on the animals to be exhibited, and double check to be sure that all relevant blanks on the health certificate are filled in with the proper information. Corrections to the health certificate must be made by and initialed by a veterinarian.

1. SEE GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL SPECIES.
2. Brucellosis Testing.
All swine over six months of age must test negative for brucellosis within 30 days prior to the opening date of exhibition or sale, but the following are exempt from the brucellosis testing requirement:

- a. Swine, not including feral swine, from a validated brucellosis-free state (Indiana is a validated brucellosis-free state.)
- b. Barrows
- c. Swine from the exhibitor's validated brucellosis-free herd (date of validation must be listed on the official health certificate).

3. Pseudorabies Testing.

All swine from Indiana must test negative for pseudorabies within 90 days prior to the opening date of the exhibition. All out of state swine must test negative for pseudorabies within 30 days prior to the opening date of exhibition. But, the following exemptions and alterations apply:

- a. Swine from a herd that is pseudorabies qualified negative or qualified negative gene-altered vaccinated under Indiana law are not required to have an individual test (date of qualification must be listed on the official health certificate).
- b. Suckling pigs accompanying a dam that has tested negative for pseudorabies are not required to be tested.

For more information on swine health requirements, call the Indiana Board of Animal Health at (317) 227-0310.
